The College Place Police Department added two new officers to their roster yesterday. Officers Brian Fortin and Jimmy Duede graduated from the Washington State Criminal Justice Training Center's Basic Law Enforcement Academy.

The two officers will begin their field training after completing the nineteen week basic law enforcement academy. The community of College Place is fortunate to have two officers of this caliber serving the city says Chief Tomaras.

If you are interested in a law enforcement career, the College Place Police Department is currently testing with hopes to hire two more officers. If interested call or visit our web page at www.CPWA.us
