The College Place Police Department commissioned a new officer following a lengthy break in service to serve his country. Officer Salvador Diaz was sworn-in at last evening's City Council meeting after serving a yearlong military deployment.

On December 9th 2016 officer Diaz graduated the Basic Law Enforcement Academy. However, Officer Diaz had to put his law enforcement training on hold to serve his country. Following graduation, Officer Diaz began a yearlong deployment serving as a medic out of country. Officer Diaz serves as a reservist in the United States Navy.

In January, Officer Diaz returned home and completed his field training. The community of College Place is fortunate to have an officer of his caliber serving the city says Chief Tomaras.
