On July 10, 2018, Walla Walla Police Narcotics Detectives with the help of College Place Police Officers served a search warrant on a City of College Place residence, located within the 1000 block of SW Carver Street. An ongoing investigation of illicit drug activity culminated from arrests by Walla Walla Police, College Place Police and the Walla Walla County Sheriff's office lead investigators to conduct a search warrant on the home.

During the search, quantities of suspected methamphetamine and felony amounts of marijuana were discovered along with packaging material and drug paraphernalia. Also discovered was an instrument used to manufacture dabs, which is a method to extract THC from marijuana. In addition to the drugs, two firearms were recovered from the residence.

The suspects were a 31-year-old male and a 43-year-old female. Both suspects were College Place residents living in the home. Both individuals were booked into the Walla Walla County Corrections facility for Felon in possession of a firearm, multiple outstanding warrants, possession of methamphetamine, possession of dangerous drug manufacturing and soliciting drug sales from a home.

College Place Chief Troy Tomaras credits the Walla Walla Police Department for their investigative efforts and partnership with our community. Arrests like these make both of our communities safer for families and children.
